These worksheets can be used on their own, or paired with the individual resources as extension activities at the completion of the unit. And the best part is, it's FREE! About these BONUS Worksheets: Our resource combines high interest concepts with low vocabulary to ensure all learners comprehend the history behind this war. About the full resource: World War 1 primary source analysis with summary by A collection of propaganda images for the United States along with the background information on each. I usually have my students partner up and give them two random images. They then use the analysis paper to write down everything they see for the three sections. I typically give them ten minutes per image. Then as a class we go through each image and discuss what they see even if they did not get that image. This helps see the ways that the United States used propaganda to support troops America in World War 1 Daily Focus Questions by This FREE resource includes 5 openers to use to supplement your unit on "America in World War 1." Topics Covered Include: Unrestricted Submarine Warfare American Neutrality Trench Warfare World War 1 Draft Registration The 14 Points Most of these questions are critical-thinking questions that can be used during the lesson, either as an opener or as a closer. Answers are not included. Visit my store, Hallstate History, where I have individual and thorough HyperDocs for each individual 5th grade TN standard. TN's standards on US history can be utilized in all 50 states. I have created this HyperDoc as a Self-Learning/Remote Learning activity for my students to complete the second week of school closure. This activity reviews TN/US standards we have already covered in class this year. I will be creating more in the days to come. This HyperDoc partially covers TN/US Standards 5. Subjects: Causes of World War I by This PowerPoint highlights the key causes for the outbreak of World War I. Included in the 6-slide PowerPoint: New Imperialism, Alliances, Militarism, Nationalism, Political and Social Tensions, and the assassination of the Austrian Archduke Franz Ferdinand. Lecture notes that explain each slide are also included. Thank you for downloading an example of products by Betsy Zachry. Click here to subscribe to my newsletter and receive a FREE game! FREE: Imperialism CRQ Sets by This handout includes a vocabulary-strengthening graphic organizer to have students define the term 'Imperialism'. They will also find advanced words for the terms 'good' and 'bad' to use in their responses. This document also includes three CRQs for practice. *I personally advise using the first two pages as a classwork activity and using one of the latter CRQs as a homework assignment or quiz. Feel free to mix and match and check out the rest of the Global History Curriculum listed below! UNIT 1: Page 2 This is a comprehensive packet on the lead up to and results of World War I. It covers topics including Otto Von Bismarck, imperialism in Africa and India, causes of WWI (MANIA), new technology, life in the trenches, the United States in WWI, Wilson's 14 points, Treaty of Versailles, nationalism after WWI, the roaring 20s, and the Great Depression and its effects on the world. This is a complete unit on WWI and has enough work to keep the kids engaged for 2 weeks! Please rate and check out Page 2 This Age of Imperialism mapping activity features a world map and worksheet in which students review a list of 16 major events and people from a World History unit on imperialism. Students use the list to create an annotated world map about Imperialism. In my classroom, I have students brainstorm in small groups for each section and then report out to the class to guide discussion. This assignment is usually most productive after an introduction to what imperialism is as well as its motives. As an option, you can have students respond to the prompt on the second page, evaluating who has the most to gain and the most Imperialism in China - MAGIC SQUARE worksheet by Imperialism in China This resource is appropriate for 6th-12th grades. Students use the textbook or internet sources to find the key terms and people. Similar to a crossword, the students match the description/statement to the correct term in the boxes. Magic Squares allow students to check their work for mistakes. They simply add up the numbers across each row and down each column. If all the columns and rows have the same total, the answers are correct! Don't let your students know the magic! Page 7 This product includes a Power Point and Printable Student Notes.
